A rare combination of history, location and turn-of-the-century architecture create Gruene's unique appeal. The mercantile was built in 1910 and played a major role in life in the area. Mr. Gruene's bank vault is still there, but unfortunately, no money!

Ask your server for a menu of all beers, wines and drink specials.

Gruene Rapids, just 200 yards west, exemplifies the fun and allure of the Guadalupe River. Swimming, tubing, rafting, kayaking, canoeing and fishing - the largest recreational river in the U.S. has it all. Have fun!

The Gristmill has ten distinctive dining areas. 'Lupe' has the best view in the house, overlooking the Guadalupe River from the River Room. Can you guess how he got his name?

H.D. Gruene built the town's most notable structures to serve the area cotton farmers, including Gruene Hall in 1878. It's the oldest continually operating dance hall in the State and recognized internationally. How 'bout some two steppin'?
